SIDNEY LUCAS PROVES HIS CLASS.

Sidney Lucas, to show that his Derby victory was not a fluke, won the mile handicap at Washington Park yesterday and won like a Derby winner should. The Derby winner was giving away all kinds of weight to the other starters, but this did not seem to hurt him in the least, and beating Alcedo, Eva Rice, Fly By Night, Sam Fullen and Tulla Fonso was simply a matter of easy performance.

For some unknown reason the so-called talent would not "stand for" Sidney Lucas, and although the enthusiastic public backed him the ring never offered less than 5 to 1 against him. As in the Derby, Bullman was up, but any ordinary stable boy at the track could have guided the colt to victory, and perhaps would not have met with as much interference as Bullman did. The colt is not a quick breaker, and as he was on the inside when the start was made, it was natural that he met with interference on the first turn, but the bumping and jostling he got after that must be charged to Bullman's carelessness, and it was poor judgment on his part that he was jammed into the fence on the far turn. But notwithstanding all this bad luck Sidney Lucas loomed up in front at the head of the stretch, and from there home simply "paraded," flashing past the wire a length and a half in front of Alcedo. The latter is a three-year-old of no mean ability, and to finish second after the miserable ride he got at the hands of Devin speaks well for him.

Fly By Night, carrying top weight, was favorite for the handicap, but after being prominent during the early stages of the journey he tired at the end. Tulla Fonso, well backed at 6 to 1, was practically left at the post by Mr. Dwyer, but showed a lot of speed and with an equal break would have been a keen contender.

The racing all through, in comparison with other days, was tame, the only close finish being in the first event, Bermuda Prince, Espionage and Honeywood being lapped on one another when they passed the judges.

The filly stake, dubbed The Englewood, looked on paper, and really was, an uncertain race on which to speculate, and it is safe to say that Louis Ezell's The Lady, at 6 to 1, caught the bulk of the public backing. This filly has been racing around Chicago all spring and is highly respected by the race-going folks, many of whom chanced a few dollars on her across the board. J. Martin rode The Lady and when he landed her first under the wire he was given quite a reception. The Sprite, backed for a "good thing" by the St. Louis contingent, was second to The Lady and Larkspur third.

That Golden Age holds Silverdale safe was demonstrated in the second race, when Green Morris' son of Golden Garter—Nonage came "rolling home" about two lengths in front of the Schorr colt with T. Burns up.

May Beach and Caywood seem to be a hard combination to beat, and they took the three-quarter sprint with ease.

Andy Blakeley's Lady Meddlesome, at the comfortable odds of 8 to 1, beat a good lot of selling platers in the closing mile and fifty yards selling race.

Jockey H. Stuart had a flattering offer to go to St. Louis to ride for H. Robinson yesterday, but it is more than probable that the boy will remain at Washington Park until the meeting is over.

WILL NOT MAKE MATCHES.

"School for Scandal will probably be sent here to meet her stake engagements, as the meeting is about over at Latonia," said Col. W. S. Barnes yesterday, "and she may meet Miss Bennett in some race. If I own any filly that can beat Miss Bennett I think it is Fancy-wood. She did beat her once, you know, and in the stake race on Tuesday, where she met her the second time, Fancywood was standing still behind the line when the flag dropped and the rider did not think it would be a start. Fancywood got off last from a standing start, the field drew five or six lengths away from her in going the first quarter. Fancywood then stumbled and went down on her knees, and at about three-eighths of a mile from home she must have been at least fifteen lengths behind all but one. She was so far out of the race that I took no further interest in her running, but looked at the contest between the leaders. Imagine my surprise to see her finish third. She must have run the last three-eighths very fast, and seemed to be going stronger than any of them at the finish. She is a good one, and I expect her, at three quarters of a mile, to give any filly in this country a sharp contest.

"I noticed in the morning paper that I am about to make a match race with Mr. T. C. McDowell—the filly School for Scandal against his Prince of Monaco filly Monarka. It is true School for Scandal beat Monarka a nose on a muddy track, but I would not think of matching School for Scandal against her, for Mr. McDowell thinks her one of the best fillies he ever owned, and he has owned a score of good ones. I would not match if I knew I would win. I do not believe in match races. It makes bad friends.

"I am here to arrange some matters connected with Messrs. Woodard & Shanklin's big sale of Kentucky and Tennessee yearlings to be held in this city on the 16th and 17th of July. And I have made a nice consignment of Melbourne yearlings to this sale. These gentlemen expected to get about 200 head to sell in the west, but I judge from what Mr. Shanklin says there will be less than a hundred head in all, and these will be the only yearlings sold in the west this year. Mr. Shanklin says they cannot be found, and if western racing men want yearlings to race next year as two-year-olds they will have to buy them in this sale."

Winner—Br. f, by Kingston—Skadi. Went to post at 2:30. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Ondurdis was much the best and was running off from the others at the end. Princess Otilie was best of the others. Guess Work made a fair showing. Educate seems to have lost her early spring form.

Scratched—18470 Screech, 107. Overweights—Ondurdis, 1 pound. Ondurdis, place, out. Princess Otilie, place, 4 to 1; show, evens. Guess Work, show, 5 to 1. Prima II, place, 9 to 10; show, 1 to 3.

Ten Candles and Toddy had the race between them all the way. The former was cleverly ridden and was the best, drawing away at the finish. Bombshell ran his race. The weight and pace were too much for Blue Devil. Cleora ran well for six furlongs, then quit badly. Brigade is of no present account.

Scratched—18796 Jack Point, 121; 18830 Precursor, 106; 18825 Big Gun, 103. Ten Candles, place, 5 to 1; show, 3 to 1. Toddy, place, 8 to 5; show, 7 to 10. Bombshell, show, evens. Blue Devil, show, 2 to 5. Cleora, show, 1 to 2.

Time, 1:09.

Winner—B. c, by Hanover—Anna Gray. Went to post at 3:36. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Holstein is a good weight carrier. He ran a fair race, was well handled and had to be hard ridden in the stretch to stall off Olympian, who ran a good race and closed fast. Gold Heels seemed likely to be the winner a sixteenth from home, but tired in the final struggle. Fake came with a rush at the end. Tom Kenny will do to watch. He was prominent to the stretch where he tired. Glennellie showed early speed, but the weight was too much and she stopped badly.

Scratched—Magnetic, 117; 18706 Star, 114; 18826 Trigger, 114. Holstein, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Olympian, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Gold Heels, show, 8 to 5. Glennellie, place, 1 to 2; show, out.

Won driving; second easily. Prince of Melbourne ran a game race and was hard ridden in the last quarter to catch Contestor. The latter showed his usual speed and held on longer than usual. Ildrim was outrun early and finished gamely as usual, but the weight stopped him. He has probably had too much racing. David Garrick ran disappointingly.

Scratched—(18765) Maribert, 111. Prince of Melbourne, place, evens; show, 2 to 5. Contestor, place, 2 to 1; show, 4 to 5. Ildrim, show, 2 to 5. David Garrick, place, 1 to 2; show, out.

Went to post at 4:50. At post 15 minutes. Start straggling. Won easily; second driving.
Leedsville got the best of the start, showed plenty of speed and was eased up at the finish. Wax Taper ran a good race and made up ground in the stretch. The Corinthian seemed dangerous at the head of the stretch, but tired in the run home. The last three at the start had no chance.
Scratched—18830 Einer, 123; 17717 Ross Clark, 110.

Point was the best. He avoided the early pace and closed fast in the last quarter. Montanic showed his usual speed, and when caught by Jack Point hung on well in the last sixteenth and lasted long enough to beat Maximo Gomez for second place. The latter ran his race, Intrusive

Winner—Br. c, by Bermuda—Queen Isabella.

Went to post at 2:30. At post 4 minutes. Start good. The first three were driving to the limit. Bermuda Prince was cleverly ridden and under light weight ran a good game race. Espionage was perhaps the best. She had bad luck early and in the last half mile made up much ground and finished with a tremendous rush. Honeywood tired in the last few strides, and was barely beaten at the end for second place. Chappaqua was hemmed in on the rail from the three furlong post home. With clear sailing he would have been hard to beat. Arthur Behan and Crosby were each other out in the first part of the race. Shrove Tuesday was prominent for a while down the backstretch, but when she stopped she stopped all over.

Scratched—18823 Goldone, 97.

Overweights—Arthur Behan, 2 pounds; Astor, 14.

Bermuda Prince, place, 6 to 1; show, 3 to 1. Espionage, place, 3 to 1; show, 3 to 2. Honeywood, show, 2 to 1. Chappaqua, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Arthur Behan, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5.

Winner—B. c, by Golden Garter—Nonage.

Went to post at 3:00. At post 11 minutes. Start fair. Won handily; second whipped out. The next five were closely bunched and driving to the limit. Golden Age is a big, handsome colt and seems to be Silverdale's superior in every way. He was well ridden by Bullman and seemed to have plenty left at the finish. Silverdale was tangled up to a certain extent at the start, but got straightened away quickly, took the shortest route and no excuse can be offered for his defeat. Small Jack ran a cracking good race. He got into a jam at the start and was last passing the half-mile post, then he made up a lot of ground and closed stoutly at the end. Mark him for early action in with his own kind. Tenny Belle is a fast filly and she showed a fine turn of speed, but stopped badly in the last furlong. Kid Cox had bad luck and never got into his stride until the final furlong, then he finished stoutly.

Scratched—18821 Lady Bramble, 103.

Overweights—Tenny Belle, 2 pounds.

Golden Age, place, 4 to 5; show, out. Silverdale, place, 1 to 2; show, out. Small Jack, show, 2 to 1.

Winner—B. f, by Kingston—Seville.

Went to post at 3:45. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; second and third driving hard. The Lady was the best, took the longest route, and ran a high-class race. Martin had no chance whatever to get through on the inside on the first turn, and used good judgment by taking the filly to the outside. He rated her cleverly down the backstretch and never made a move until straightened away for home, then The Lady slowly but surely wore The Sprite's long lead down and at the end was going away. Mathews, on The Sprite, wasted considerable time, and perhaps threw the race away, by looking back all through the stretch. Larkspur ran a good, game race, being under punishment through the last three furlongs. Anthracite showed speed and ran a fairly good race. Triaditza never could get near the front, and is not in her best form. Scarlet Lily worked faster than the race was run, and is evidently a "morning glory."

Scratched—18553 Lady Elite, 117; 18670 Princess Thyra, 117.

The Lady, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. The Sprite, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Larkspur, show, 4 to 5. Triaditza, place, 7 to 5; show, 3 to 5.

Time, 12, 25, 50, 1:16, 1:41.

Winner—Ch. c, by Top Gallant—Addie C. II.

Went to post at 4:15. At post 8 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; the next three were under keen pressure. Sidney Lucas was the best and although interfered with numerous times, made his field look cheap. Bullman got shut off repeatedly and the colt had to be a lot the best to win as he did. Alcedo was also interfered with often, was also badly ridden and ran a smashing, good race himself, finishing like a stake horse. Eva Rice showed the most speed, but in the final quarter tired badly and barely lasted long enough to get third place. The weight seemed to anchor Fly by Night, who was well ridden, had no excuses and tired in the stretch. Tulla Fonso had no chance from where she got away, but she showed a fine turn of speed and is in winning form.

Sidney Lucas, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Alcedo, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Eva Rice, show, 2 to 1. Fly by Night, place, 7 to 10; show, out.

Time, 11, 23, 36, 49, 1:14.

Winner—Ch. f, by Bobby Beach—Faithless.

Went to post at 4:50. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won handily; second, third and fourth were doing their best. May Beach is in rare good form, and Caywood rides her to perfection. He rated the filly cleverly in front in this race, and when he got ready in the stretch came away without an effort. Algareta ran another good, game, honest race, finishing stoutly under pressure. This filly has been badly managed and placed all the season. Sly, perhaps, has had too much of it. She did not show her usual flash of speed at the end and wobbled under punishment. Sharp Bird is a cracking good maiden. He was off poorly, but raced up to the leaders early, and was right there all the way and hung on gamely in the closing drive.

Scratched—18823 Yellow Tail, 113; 18090 Limelight, 99.

May Beach, place, evens, show, 1 to 2. Algareta, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Sly, place, 1 to 2; show out.

Time, 25, 50, 1:15, 1:41, 1:45.

Winner—B. f, by Meddler—Little Lady II.

Went to post at 5:20. Off at the first break to a good start. Won well in hand; second, third and fourth were under full sail. Lady Meddlesome got away full in her stride, was lucky and never fully extended. Buchanan took her back a trifle on the far turn but when Handpress got up to him he easily drew away again. Scales ran a good race and under a hand ride at the end closed stoutly. Cogmoosey had all the bad luck in the race but stood it gamely and ran as though he was in his best form. Patroon was dull of speed early but in the final quarter he made up much ground. Handpress is a coward. Limerick was pinched off on the stretch turn and this ruined whatever chance he had. Russell R. could not run fast enough to keep warm. Red Pirate also had an attack of the slows.

Scratched—(18612) Free Hand, 97; 18762 Moroni, 108.

Overweights—Limerick, 4 pounds.

Lady Meddlesome, place, 3 to 1; show, 3 to 2. Scales, place, 3 to 1; show, 3 to 2. Cogmoosey, show, 3 to 2. Patroon, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Russell R., place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5.
